

IAGLR (International Association for Great Lakes Research) Conference

TEACHER INVITATION

TUESDAY MAY 31, 2011, Duluth, MN

Bring Real World Science back to the classroom!

A great opportunity for middle and high school teachers to hear about scientific research going on in the Great Lakes and large lakes around the world. Converse with the scientists, exchange ideas and bring the excitement of this real world applicable research back to the classroom!

Learn more/apply at www.coseegreatlakes.net/events

A Sampling of Tuesday's Events to Peak an Educator's Interest

Morning Session Highlights

Extreme or Catastrophic Events in Lakes and Rivers

Large Asian and African Lakes

Assessing Effects of Toxic Substances in the Great Lakes

Science, Civic Engagement, and Undergraduate Education Initiatives

Afternoon Session Highlights

Paleoclimate Records of Large Lakes

Linkages Between the Landscape and Great Lakes Coastal Ecosystems

Web-based Tools for Managing Aquatic Resources in the Great Lakes

Large Lakes Science Solutions – Research Leading to Management Tools and Development of Policy

Lunch Round Table and Evening Poster Session

Explore an array of research and converse with the researchers. Exchange educational ideas with other teachers.

COSEE TEACHER INCENTIVES

Limited number of scholarships available

- Free Registration
- Money for a Substitute
- Stipend to be determined

To APPLY: Complete the Survey at:

<http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/NLH8WFH>

DEADLINE is April 19

Location: Duluth Entertainment Convention Center, Duluth Minnesota

Contact: Diane Desotelle
218-269-6565 or desotelle@chartermi.net

Learn more about IAGLR conference at:
<http://www.iaglr.org/conference/index.php>

